

Capstone Business Credit Funds $78 Million for Harbrew Imports, Ltd.

Strong Growth from Licensed Alcohol Brands featuring Danny Devito's Newly Launched Premium Limoncello

New York, NY – December 10, 2007 – Capstone Business Credit, LLC a venture merchant banking firm that provides flexible financing and advisory services to small to mid-sized, import-export businesses announced a two-year, $78 million financing deal with Harbrew Imports, Ltd , a federally licensed importer and wholesaler of spirits, wine and beer. The Capstone agreement represents $48 million in factoring and $30 million in purchase order financing.

Harbrew Imports, based in Freeport, New York, has distribution rights to a growing portfolio of alcohol beverage brands including the recently launched, Danny Devito Premium Limoncello, Johnny Bench's Bench 5 Scotch Whiskey, highly-acclaimed Georges Vesselle Champagne, Cuba Caramel and Yanjing, the official state beer of China, to name a few.

"As the market demand for our special portfolio of premium brands continues to increase, we identified the right financial source to support the growth of our company," said Richard DeCicco, CEO of Harbrew and a 30-year veteran of the beverage business. "The Capstone funding will assist us to increase our product offerings and continue to provide outstanding value to our customers," continued DeCicco. "We look forward to a strong ongoing relationship with Capstone."

According to Capstone, many growing businesses have high demand for their products, but lack the financial support to properly manage and expand their company. "Harbrew, through its many licensing deals, has continued opportunities to rapidly expand with each new product line," said Joseph Ingrassia, managing member of Capstone Business Credit. "We look forward to continuing to support Harbrew's growth and expansion initiatives."
